Tips for Choosing the Right Modern Carpet or Area Rug

Selecting the right modern carpet or area rug involves considering various factors to ensure it complements your space. First and foremost, think about the size; a rug that's too small can make a room feel disjointed, while one that's too large may overwhelm the space. Next, consider the style and color—choose something that either enhances your existing decor or provides a striking contrast for added interest. Finally, material plays a critical role in the rug's longevity and maintenance. For high-traffic areas, opt for durable materials that can withstand wear and tear.
